Compassion is a powerful thing. Compassion has the power to overcome the barriers of indifference and intolerance that separate and isolate so many of us. It can inspire people to acts of profound generosity and courage and forgiveness. If we could find a way to increase and sustain its presence and influence compassion could change the world.

The gospel passages we'll be studying this Sunday (Luke 7:11-17) are about the compassion of Jesus and the power of his compassion to change everything. I hope you're able to join us this Sunday as we celebrate and explore the power of Jesus' compassion.

If you cannot attend the Infinitely More Concert you can still help by bringing a food item to church for the Hampton Food Basket.

You are invited!

Monday June 6
7:00-9:00 pm
Pat Mackay's home (46 Tilley Street.)

Our guests are the Worldwide Mothers' Union President Lynne Tembey and committee member Ann Marie Vickers. They will be visiting the Diocese of Fredericton for a few days and stopping at Hampton, Fredericton and Riverview.

All are welcome to join us.

St. Paul's is looking for a motivated, creative, and self-disciplined candidate who is eager to help build up the Church, serve the wider community, and develop his or her gifts in the areas of Christian leadership and community engagement.

The candidate must be at least 16 years of age and returning to school, college or university in the fall. The position will run from July 4 to August 26, 2016.

The successful candidate will be responsible for some minor custodial work in and around the church property, as well as supporting the larger mission of the parish by working with the Hampton Community Garden, the Children's Gardening Program, the Sunday Morning Children's Program and Vacation Bible School. The successful candidate will also be invited to spend a week at Camp Medley to help with the camp's chapel program.

Please submit your résumé to the parish office by June 12, 2016.

Farraline Place

In 1809, Peter Fraser, the York County representative in the New Brunswick Legislature, purchased the lot next door to the legislative building. There he built one of the city's most structurally sound buildings. The walls are 8" thick hand hewn timber interlocked with brick supports. It was named Cambourne House. After he and his wife died, the mansion was sold to George Minchin and then to the Tippet family.

In 1893 the honourable J.J. Fraser took over the property. At this time, it was renamed Farraline Place after the original Fraser estate in Scotland. Lieutenant Governor Fraser died in Italy in 1896. His widow, J.N. Pauletta Fraser lived in the home until her death in 1907. She left the house in the hands of trustees to be used as a home for elderly ladies.

In 1919, the New Brunswick branch of the Kings Daughters and Sons decided to carry out her wishes and in June 1921 the J.J. Fraser Farraline Home was officially opened welcoming all elderly persons, dedicated by His Lordship, Bishop Richardson of Fredericton.

In 1988, the Anglican Church Women of the Diocese of Fredericton took over ownership the home which was then incorporated under the laws of New Brunswick as a non-profit company for the purposes of providing a home for elderly citizens. Operating and periodic capital costs are funded through on-going rental income, occasional fund raising events and private donations gratefully accepted as charitable donations.

Today, there are twenty residents and we would be glad to add you to our waiting list of people interested in living in Farraline Place.

Summer is quickly approaching upon us. With that, we will need summer volunteers for our Sunday School program. I am very thankful for all of the wonderful people who have volunteered in the past to help Kate and Sharon. I would like to have two volunteers on every Sunday during the summer.

Here are the summer Sunday's. Please take a look at these dates and sign up for what works for you.

- July 3 ,10, 17, 24, 31
- August 7, 14, 21, 28
- Sept. 4

You can let me know what week you sign for by emailing me at jessica.margaret@hotmail.com or calling me at home at 849-6695. If you have any questions or concerns please feel free to ask.

Thank you.
